To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of Shannons Insurance, we are pleased to confirm our company's association as first Sponsor in the development and production of the Australian feature film project titled 'King of the Mountain'.

The story tells of the epic battle between the best Touring Car Drivers in the world - as well as our own home grown talent - both on and off the track. The story is set against the backdrop of the dramatic events leading up to and including the 1987 James Hardie Bathurst 1000 at Mount Panorama.

Shannons believes this exciting new feature film project (which is being produced locally by JPL Productions Pty Ltd) will appeal, not only to motoring enthusiasts across Australia and beyond, but to all people young and old, particularly given the movie's setting against an iconic period in Australian motor sport history.

We would confidently encourage any local company or ardent motoring enthusiast to support the Producers of what we expect to be an iconic Australian feature film.

Kind Regards

Mark Behr,
